

Eastern Birmingham NHS
Primary Care Trust

Tackling diabetes in the community

Members of our Community Diabetes Team established in 2003 to help tackle the growing problem which this chronic condition poses to the people of Eastern Birmingham.

The Team's aim is to work closely with primary care teams in providing advice, early treatment and support to patients in community settings. This, in turn, will enable hospital staff to concentrate on the most difficult and complex cases.